

House Resolution No.

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents whose significant contributions of time and energy ensure that students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Danny Farmer of Charleston, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as an educator at Charleston High School; and

Whereas, Danny Farmer recently enhanced his already impressive record of achievement when he was named as the Class 3 Coach of the Year by the Southeast Missouri Basketball Coaches Association in light of the Charleston Bluejays boys basketball team taking First Place at the Missouri State High School Activities Association championships on March 17, 2007; and

Whereas, head coach of the boys basketball Bluejays since 1997, Danny Farmer has taken five teams to Final Four appearances, where they earned one title, two second-place finishes, and two third-place finishes; and

Whereas, during his tenure as head coach, Danny Farmer also has led teams to six district championships and three conference championships and has personally received three Missouri Basketball Coaches Association Coach of the Year awards, three Conference Coach of the Year awards, two B.A. Sports Lennis McFerren awards, two Standard Democrat Coach of the Year awards, three District Coach of the Year awards, and one Associated Press Coach of the Year award; and

Whereas, a graduate of Three Rivers Community College and Millsaps College, Danny Farmer previously taught and coached at Scott County Central High School, where his girls and boys athletic teams were well represented with Final Four appearances:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Danny Farmer as a Coach of the Year by the Southeast Missouri Basketball Coaches Association and to convey to him this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and professional success in life; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Danny Farmer of Charleston High School.
